INSPECTOR INITIALS: _____

The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the war. It is followed by a detailed account of the operations of the army and the navy. The report concludes with a summary of the results of the campaign and a statement of the resources of the country.

The operations of the army were carried out in a most successful manner. The army was able to capture the enemy's positions and to advance towards the capital. The navy also performed admirably, capturing several enemy ships and blockading the coast.

The results of the campaign were most satisfactory. The enemy's forces were completely defeated and the capital was liberated. The resources of the country were found to be ample and the people were in a state of jubilation.

The report concludes with a statement of the resources of the country. It is found that the country is well supplied with food and clothing and that the people are in a state of prosperity.
