CONTRACTOR REGISTRATION REQUIRED

In order for you to become a registered Contractor with the City of Napoleon and perform work within the City Limits, you are required to provide the following:

1. A certificate of Insurance which shows proof of coverage for bodily injury as well as property damage. ($500,000.00 Minimum aggregate).
2. A copy of your current workers compensation certificate (if you have employees).
3. A completed Copy of the City of Napoleon Contractor Registration form.
4. Proof of registration with the City Income Tax Department.

Also you will need to submit a registration fee of $25.00. Upon submittal of the forms and fee as specified herein, and provided you are in good standing with the City building department, a contractor license will be issued to you. Contractor licenses are valid for one calendar year.

In addition to the above requirements, you may also be required to show proof of competency in the type of work for which you are proposing to perform within the City.

The City of Napoleon operates under the Ohio Building Officials Association (OBOA) One Two & Three Family building code for residential construction. The City of Napoleon requires plan review for commercial & industrial projects and upon approval a zoning permit is issued. Permits and structural requirements for construction of commercial & industrial facilities fall under the requirements of the Ohio Basic Building Code. Permits for commercial & industrial projects are issued by Wood County Building Inspection Bowling Green, Ohio. Code books are available at cost.
