Dear Mr. Germann

I have conferred with City staff regarding the 6 water taps which were installed during the construction of the water main, in the Bavarian Village, by Nagel Construction.

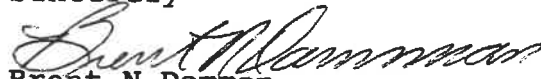

Based on other developments and past practice it is the responsibility of the developer to provide water taps on private streets and/or property.

In this case the development is private as is the street, so the developer is responsible for installing all water taps.

A tap fee of $375.00 is still required as the City will most likely maintain the private water mains within this development.
