Dear Mr. Ingle:

In regard to your request about a complaint against Randell Eigsti, without specific evidence that there are four dogs or more in this home, we do not have enough information to file a complaint for having a kennel at this address.

Very truly yours,

---

Honorable Mayor,
Council Members,
City of Napoleon, Ohio

Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned, would like to file a complaint against Randall Eigsti of 133 Second Street, for harboring too many animals. On June 25, 1973, in the case of Suydam vs. Eigsti, in city court, Mr. Eigsti testified that he had nine cats and three dogs and there is evidence now of more dogs on his rented property.

We ask for an immediate investigation and relief of this situation. We feel that Mr. Eigsti is violating the city's zoning law by denying us healthy and safe surroundings and is depreciating our properties ever since he moved in last December.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Very truly yours,

- Franklin B. Suydam, Elizabeth Suydam
- Earl Carroll, Ida Carroll, 124 W. Barnes
- John Krape, Joyce Krape, 206 W. Barnes Ave.
- Thomas Thruth and Grace Thruth - 205 W. Barnes
- Eugene Vajen, Bonnie Vajen, 132 W Barnes.
- Richard A. Nelson, Marcella Nelson, 131 W. Barnes
- Lulu Hamney, 100 W. Barnes

Dear Mr. Witt:

Complaint against Randell Eigsti of 133 Second Street.

Subject: Too many animals.

I visited this residence, no one was home. There were two dogs outside and it sounded like four on the inside of the house.

I saw no cats.

This residence is located in a "B" district, no kennels allowed. County Auditor reports three licenses issued, no kennel license.

Enclosed is a copy of the complaint.

Sincerely,

Carl W. Ingle
Building Inspector
