From: Napoleon Police Department

Date: 11/12/2012

Re:

On 11/12/2012 the Napoleon Police Dept. were dispatched to 56 Sunnydale in Napoleon, Ohio in reference to a gun shot being heard. Once on scene Officers spoke with the homeowner who advised that an unknown male had entered his residence through a window and assaulted a female friend who was already in the residence. This female was identified as Natalie Rose McCoy of Defiance, Ohio. The home owner attempted to give aid but the unknown male was in possession of a shotgun. The home owner wrestled with the unknown male which resulted in a shot being fired. The unknown male regained control of the gun and the home owner escaped through the window.

With aid of Henry County Sherriff's Office, Wood County Sherriff's Office and Wauseon Police Dept. the residence was searched and no one was found to be inside. It is possible Ms. McCoy has been taken against her will by the Offender

Through investigation the unknown male has been identified as Gilberto Villarreal Jr. 27 yoa 5' 6" 175 lbs black hair brown eyes.

Law Enforcement is requesting assistance in locating a gold color 2001 Chevy Impala 4dr Ohio registration ESN2626.

Missing is Natalie Rose McCoy 24 yoa 5'6" 130 lbs blond hair and Hazel eyes

Please provide any information to the Napoleon Police Dept. 310 Glenwood Napoleon, Ohio or 419-599-2810
