Re: Snow Emergency

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY THE CITY OF NAPOLEON IS UNDER A LEVEL 3 SNOW EMERGENCY

Level 3. Street and Roadway Emergency: When streets or roadways are extremely hazardous due to weather conditions as described in Level 2, or when white-out conditions exist, and when all or most streets or roadways are closed in the City, except for authorized travel. For the purpose of this level, authorized travel means:

- (1) Emergency personnel traveling to and from work, or when officially engaged in their work activities;
- (2) Snow removal personnel traveling to and from work, or when officially engaged in their work activities;
- (3) Persons traveling in case of a bona fide life threatening emergency;
- (4) Persons removing their vehicle from a snow emergency route or zone; and
- (5) Others authorized by the Henry County Sheriff, Napoleon Police Chief, or Napoleon City Manager, or any of their designated persons.
