Napoleon City Police Department

PRESS RELEASE

To: ALL LOCAL MEDIA
From: LT. D. MACK
CC: OUTGOING CORRESPONDANCE
Date: July 20, 2016
Re: REPORTED ABDUCTION

The Napoleon Police Department received a request around 0755 hrs on July 20, 2016 for a welfare check. This request was from management of a local business located on Wood Drive in Napoleon. The manager was concerned in the disappearance of a female employee from the work sight during 2nd shift on the July 19, 2016.

During the investigation, it was learned that the missing employee met Kory O'Brien, 25 yoa from Wauseon, in a parking lot in a nearby business. When the employee attempted to break off that meeting, she was abducted and removed from the county by force. The investigation led to officers find the suspect and the victim in Wauseon, Ohio where the suspect was taken into custody and the victim is cooperating with the investigation.

Charged with 1 Count of Abduction a Felony of the 3rd Degree is Kory O'Brien, 25 yoa of Wauseon, Ohio. Kory was transported to CCNO. The investigation continues with more charges expected.

Should anyone have further information regarding a altercation between a man and women on July 19, 2016 between the hours of 8:30PM and 9:30pm in the area of the parking lot of Wal-Mart, Rent-A-Center, Murphy's Gas Station, or McDonalds in the City of Napoleon, please contact The Napoleon Police Department @ 419-599-2810.
