Felony OVI

On Saturday August 6, 2016 at approximately 1500 hours Officers were attempting to assist a disoriented motorist in the 700 Block of Norton Ave. While attempting to communicate with the motorist officers noticed numerous indicators of intoxication and the driver; Antonio Briseno 53 years old of Defiance was taken into custody. A check of his driving record indicated Antonio has been previously been convicted of or plead guilty to 2 Felony OVI's in 2005, 5 total OVI's in the past 20 years and 18 OVI's dating back to December of 1981.

Due to his prior driving record Antonio was charged with an OVI that is a Felony of the 3rd degree, and taken to CCNO. Antonio's initial appearance in the Napoleon Municipal court is scheduled for Monday August 8, 2016.

At the time Antonio was taken into custody in Napoleon, the Defiance Police department was looking to speak with Antonio regarding a Domestic Violence that had occurred in their City. The Defiance Police Department later advised that they do have a Domestic Violence and Unauthorized Use of a Motor Vehicle Charge against Antonio related to their incident.
