PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

On 08/09/2019 at 9:02 AM, Officers of the Napoleon Police Department were advised of a suspicious person who just entered the Walmart at 1815 Scott St, wearing a mask. Officers responded to the Walmart. Henry County Sherriff Mike Bodenbender first made contact with the suspect, who was still wearing the mask and carrying a backpack, he refused to follow commands and physically resisted when the Sherriff attempted to take the suspect into custody. He was taken into custody by the Sherriff and members of the Napoleon Police Department.

Taken into custody was Bryan Gonzalez , age 33 of Filmore St., Napoleon Ohio. Bryan Gonzalez was charged with Obstruction of Official Business, Resisting Arrest and transported to the Correction Center of Northwest Ohio, to await an appearance in Napoleon Municipal Court.

Gonzalez was found to be unarmed and there is no continued threat to the community.
